

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

WILLIAM K. BOSS, M.D.,

Plaintiff,

-against-

CAREFIRST BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD,

Defendant.

Index No.:

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, William K. Boss M.D. (“Plaintiff”), on assignment of Christian P., by and through his attorneys, Halkovich Law, LLC, by way of Complaint against Carefirst Blue Cross Blue Shield (“Defendant”), alleges as follows:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff is a New Jersey medical practitioner registered to do business in the State of New Jersey with a principal place of business at 305 Route 17, Paramus, New Jersey 07652.
2. Upon information and belief, Defendant is engaged in administering health care plans or policies in the state of New Jersey.
3. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e). The insurance policy at issue are governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq. The administrative remedies have been exhausted.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4. Plaintiff is a medical provider who specializes in plastic surgery and often treats patients in emergency situations.

5. On July 20, 2020, Plaintiff performed emergency surgery on Christin P. (“Patient”), a one-year-old who struck his head resulting in a laceration to his forehead. (See, Exhibit A, attached hereto.)

6. At the time of his treatment, Patient was the beneficiary of an employer-based health insurance plan for which Defendant served as claims administrator.

7. Patient assigned his health insurance rights and benefits to Plaintiff. (See, Exhibit B, attached hereto)

8. After treating Patient, Plaintiff submitted a Health Care Financing Administration (“HCFA”) medical bill to Defendant seeking payment for the performed treatment in the total amount of $8,660.00. (See, Exhibit C, attached hereto)

9. As an out-of-network provider, Plaintiff does not have a network contract with Defendant that would determine or limit payment for Plaintiff’s treatment of Defendant’s members.

10. In response to Plaintiff’s bill, Defendant “allowed” payment in the amount of $313.26, of which $281.94 was paid to Plaintiff and $31.32 was applied towards Patient’s coinsurance. (See, Exhibit D, attached hereto.)

11. Upon information and belief, under the terms of Patient’s insurance plan, out-of-network emergency medical services are subject to reimbursement in accordance with usual and customary rates.

12. Plaintiff’s charges for the medical services rendered to Patient were consistent with usual and customary rates for the applicable geographic area.

13. Plaintiff submitted multiple internal appeals challenging Defendant’s reimbursement as inconsistent with the terms of Patient’s insurance plan.

14. However, Defendant failed to issue any additional reimbursement in response to Plaintiff's appeals.

15. Defendant has thus failed to issue payment in accordance with the applicable insurance plan terms and Plaintiff has thus been damaged in the amount of $8,346.74.

16. Accordingly, Plaintiff brings this action for recovery of the outstanding balance, and Defendant's breach of fiduciary duty.

COUNT ONE

FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS PURSUANT TO MEMBER'S PLAN UNDER 29
U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B)

17. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 16 of the Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

18. Plaintiff avers this Count to the extent ERISA governs this dispute.

19. Section 502(a)(1), codified at 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a) provides a cause of action for a beneficiary or participant seeking payment under a benefits plan.

20. Plaintiff has standing to seek such relief based on the assignments of benefits obtained by Plaintiff from Patient.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendant acted in a fiduciary capacity in administering any claims determined to be governed by ERISA.

22. Plaintiff is entitled to recover benefits due to Patient under any applicable ERISA plan or policy.

23. As a result, Plaintiff has been damaged and continues to suffer damages in the operation of its medical practice.

COUNT TWO

BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY AND CO-FIDUCIARY DUTY UNDER 29 U.S.C.
§ 1132(a)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1) and 29 U.S.C. § 1105 (a)

24. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 23 of the Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

25. 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3)(B) provides a cause of action by a participant, beneficiary, or fiduciary to obtain other appropriate equitable relief (i) to redress such violations or (ii) to enforce any provisions of this subchapter or the terms of the plan.

26. Plaintiff seeks redress for Defendant's breach of fiduciary duty and/or Defendant's breach of co-fiduciary duty under 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1) and 29 U.S.C. § 1105 (a).

27. 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1) imposes a "prudent man standard of care" on fiduciaries.

28. Specifically, a fiduciary shall discharge its duties with respect to a plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries and (A) for the exclusive purpose of: (i) providing benefits to participants and their beneficiaries; and (ii) defraying reasonable expenses of administering the plan; (B) with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims; (C) by diversifying the investments of the plan so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so; and (D) in accordance with the documents and instruments governing the plan insofar as such documents and instruments are consistent with the provisions of this subchapter and subchapter III of this chapter. 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1).

29. 29 U.S.C. § 1105(a) imposes liability for breaches of co-fiduciaries.

30. Specifically, a fiduciary with respect to a plan shall be liable for a breach of fiduciary responsibility of another fiduciary with respect to the same plan in the following circumstances: (1) if he participates knowingly in, or knowingly undertakes to conceal, an act or omission of such other fiduciary, knowing such act or omission is a breach; (2) if, by his failure to comply with section 1104(a)(1) [“prudent man standard of care] of this title in the administration of his specific responsibilities which give rise to his status as a fiduciary, he has enabled such other fiduciary to commit a breach; or (3) if he has knowledge of a breach by such other fiduciary, unless he makes reasonable efforts under the circumstances to remedy the breach. 29 U.S.C. § 1105(a).

31. Here, when Defendant acted to partially deny payment for the medical bill at issue, and when they responded to the administrative appeals initiated by Plaintiff, they were clearly acting as a “fiduciary” as that term is defined by ERISA § 1002(21)(A) because, among other reasons, Defendant acted with discretionary authority or control to deny the payment and to manage the administration of the employee benefit plan at issue as described above.

32. Here, Defendant breached its fiduciary duties by: (1) failing to issue an Adverse Benefit Determination in accordance with the requirements of ERISA and applicable regulations; (2) participating knowingly in, or knowingly undertaking to conceal, an act or omission of such other fiduciary, knowing such act or omission is a breach; (3) failing to make reasonable efforts under the circumstances to remedy the breach of such other fiduciary; and (4) wrongfully withholding money belonging to Plaintiff.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

- A. For an Order directing Defendant to pay Plaintiff $8,346.74;
- B. For an Order directing Defendant to pay Plaintiff all benefits Patient would be entitled to under their applicable insurance policy administered by Defendant;
- C. For compensatory damages and interest;
- D. For attorney's fees and costs of suit; and
- E. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.
